

Calling all readers of Carnforth School

We want to hear how beautifully and fluently you can read aloud! Use the volume, tone and expression of your voice to engage us. Film yourself reading your favourite book aloud (or a section of it) and send it into your year group email address by 6th December.

Entries will be played within class and a winner chosen. Prizes will be awarded to the winning readers within each year group. Happy Reading!

