

Stickers

When children are displaying the characteristics of our learning superpowers (resilience, collaboration, communicating, thinking, curiosity and risk taking) the children will receive a sticker showing the particular learning superpower they have demonstrated.

Please ask your child how and why they have been given the sticker. and celebrate this achievement with them.

Use the learning superheroes at home to notice and praise when the

In School

Each classroom has a display for the children's understanding of the characteristics and for children and staff to refer to during the day.

There is a weekly assembly to discuss each characteristic and to demonstrate how to display the learning superpowers in different situations and contexts.

Learning Superpowers

Striving to be effective learners

Carnforth School

Our learning superpowers

We have introduced some learning superpowers to encourage our children to be the best they can and encourage our children to be active learners.

Our Learning Superheroes...

I am a resilient learner because:

- I know it's ok to make mistakes
- I know that being outside of my comfort zone is ok, it means I am growing
- I know I am working hard to achieve my best
- I know I can complete the tasks my teacher sets me
- I know it's ok to try new things

I am a collaborative learner because:

- I know that together we can achieve more
- I know we are all good at different things
- I know some things can't be done alone
- I know that working together makes us stronger
- Teamwork makes the dream work!

I am a curious learner because:

- I can use questions to deepen my learning.
- I believe asking questions helps me understand.
- I enjoy investigating problems.
- I can find the answer to problems using knowledge I already have.
- I am confident to ask why and how during my lessons.
- I can observe the world around me and explore.
- I can find out how something works or why something happens by observing and exploring.

I am a risk taker because:

- I know that it can be safe to take risks.
- I know that some risk taking can be a benefit, we can gain from it.
- I understand when the risk outweighs the benefits.
- I have developed strategies to help me succeed and manage risk

I am a creative and critical thinker because:

- I know that I have different strategies I can use to approach a task
- I can use my previous experiences to find solutions
- I can test my ideas and make predictions
- I am confident to ask questions to improve my strategies
- It's okay to make mistakes, it will help me improve my strategies

I am an effective communicator because:

- I recognise people have individual opinions
- I know that not everyone thinks the same.
- I know other people can teach you new ideas etc
- I know it is important to respect other people's ideas even if you don't agree
- I know that some word choices work better than others for specific purposes
- I know it is important to listen to others, whoever they are
- I know it is important to listen to all of the words
